CREATIONS. Scot.: E. of Seafield, Visc. Reidhaven, and Ld. Ogilvy of Deskford and Cullen, 1701.—Sir Walter Ogilvie (Kt.) was in 1616 created Ld. Ogilvie, and his son James was in 1638 and 1641 advanced to be Earl of Findlater. The Lordship and 1st Earldom expired; but the 1641 Earldom lasted till the death of the 7th in its line. James, 4th Earl of Findlater, received two creations of Peerage, the former including a Viscty. of Seafield which lapsed concurrently with the Findlater Earldom. At the second creation he was awarded the above three Scottish titles, this time with remainder to heirs of his estate. Accordingly on the death of the above 7th Earl (4th of Seafield) the titles of 1701 passed to a cousin, Sir Lewis Alex. Grant, 8th Bt., who forthwith assumed the additional name of Ogilvie and became 5th Earl of Seafield. The 9th Earl was made Bn. Strathspey, a title previously granted to the 7th, but lapsing on the death of his successor, and which has now branched off as a distinct peerage. The late Earl informed us that the surname is now properly "Grant" only.

Palmer-Morewood, and divorced wife of Alf. E. M. Mundy. Seat, Ingestre Hall, Stafford; town res., 12A George St., Hanover Sq., W. (Ctss. of S., Alton Towers, Stoke-upon-Trent.)

CREATIONS. Eng.: E. of Shrewsbury, 1442. Gt. Br.: Bn. Talbot, 1733; Earl Talbot and Visc. Ingestre, 1784. Irel.: E. of Waterford, 1446.—A Barony of Talbot by writ commenced in 1331 (and that out of a feudal Barony dating from the time of Henry I.), and this Peerage continued until it is now for the second time in abeyance. John Talbot, 7th Bn. (a Bnss. was 6th in line), a great Commander in the French wars, termed by Shakespeare "the great Alcides of the field," though once defeated and taken prisoner by Joan of Arc, was created Earl of Shrewsbury and of Waterford, being twice made Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. He was slain in his 80th year after having been victorious in forty fights; and the English dominion in France practically expired with him. The 2nd Earl fell at Northampton on the Lancastrian side. The 6th Earl became 4th husband of the proud and unscrupulous woman Elizabeth, daughter of John Hardwick. The 11th Earl died from a wound received in a duel with the 2nd Duke of Buckingham. The 12th was created Duke of Shrewsbury (1694) for his services in transferring the crown to William of Orange (he having embraced the Protestant religion in place of that of his ancestors): he was afterwards influential in securing the succession of George I. But he left no issue and the Dukedom expired. His cousin and successor returned to the older religion and was in holy orders. The above Barony of 1331, after its first abeyance, passed by marriage into the Norfolk Dukedom, in which it remained until the death of the 9th Duke in 1777. Meantime in 1733 there had been created the still existing Barony of Talbot (of Hensol), which was conferred upon Chas. Talbot, son of the militant Bp. of Durham (see INTROD., "Bishops") and a descendant of one of the younger sons of the 2nd Earl, himself being successively M.P. for Tregony and Durham, a P.C., and afterwards Lord Chancellor. His son and successor, Lord Steward of the Household, was created Earl Talbot. The elder Shrewsbury line became extinct with the 17th Earl in 1856, so that the succession then passed to the 3rd Earl Talbot, who became 18th Earl of Shrewsbury and of Waterford. The additional surname Chetwynd was taken by Royal Licence by the 1st Earl Talbot, but it is generally ignored in use except in legal documents.

CREATION. Scot.: Ld. Sinclair, 1449, confirmed 1489.—The 1st Ld. fully recognised was Henry Sinclair, grandson of an Earl of Caithness, but "Burke" now regards that Earl himself (Earl also of Orkney) as the 1st Ld., such title being given him in several writs, as it is to his next successor, thus bringing the above Henry (who eventually was killed at Flodden Field) to the position of 3rd Ld. The 9th Ld. had an only daughter, styled Mistress of Sinclair, upon whose sons he made a settlement of the succession. The 10th Ld. died in 1723, and the title became dormant on account of his son having been attainted for engaging in the rebellion 1715. In 1782, the House of Lords admitted the claims to succession of Charles St. Clair, who was a member of another branch of the family, but coming within the scope of "heirs general": their founder is given as Sir Wm. St. Clair of Herdmanston, a companion-in-arms of King Robert Bruce.

CREATIONS. Eng. : D. of Somerset and Bn. Seymour, 1547 (Barony one day bef. Dukedom) ; a Bt. 1611.—Sir Edwd. Seymour brother of Jane Seymour and Kt. of the Bath, who became 1st Duke, was a great favourite with Henry VIII., who appointed him Protector of his son Edward VI. (the Duke's nephew). He was also made Earl Marshal and Lord Great Chamberlain, both for life only. A grandson was the first to receive the Baronetcy. The Protector, however, was brought to the block in 1552 through an outrageous usurpation of authority on the part of some leading nobles abetted by the Roman Catholics. His titles were thus forfeited, but one of his sons was made Earl of Hertford and Bn. Beauchamp. This nobleman married Catherine, sister of Lady Jane Grey, and her being of royal descent rendered the union criminal in law, both of them were accordingly sent to the Tower, the Earl remaining there for nine years and his wife dying. His grandson succeeded him and was in 1640 created Marq. of Hertford, and in 1660 the Dukedom and Seymour Barony were restored with the original precedence. He unhappily was guilty of a like indiscretion to that of his grandfather, for he secretly married James I.'s 1st cousin, Lady Arabella Stuart, and had in consequence to flee the country, whilst his wife died in the Tower. The Marquessate expired with the 4th Duke, but the Earldom and the titles of 1547 went to a cousin, who was shot in Italy by the husband of a lady to whom he had been offensive. The 6th Peer, who was known as " The Proud Duke," married Lady Eliz Percy, daughter of the last Earl of Northumberland, distinguished as Mistress of the Robes to Queen Anne. The 7th Duke was given the lapsed Earldom just named, but both that and the Hertford Earldom, with some other honours, lapsed at his decease, the Dukedom once more going to a collateral. This leading title, the second in rank in the Peerage of England, had been originally created in 1443, and was repeatedly extinct or forfeited before 1547, the 2nd Duke having been beheaded in 1463 when taken in arms against Edward IV. at Hexham. The surname was long corrupted into Seymour, but the original St. Maur was restored by the 13th Duke.

Worthington, of Maple Hayes, Lichfield. Seat, Swynnerton Pk., Stone, Staffs.

CREATIONS. Eng.: A Bt. 1621; Bn. Stafford, 1640.—There were eight Bns Stafford by tenure, and after these there was in 1298 created a Stafford Barony by writ, the 2nd Bn. being made Earl of Stafford (Co.), and the Peerage lasting till 1521, when the 9th Bn. and 8th Earl, who was also 3rd Duke of Buckingham, was beheaded. The Barony was newly created in 1547, when Henry Stafford, son and heir of his beheaded predecessor, was the recipient. This line lasted till about 1640, and was then immediately restarted, Sir Wm. Howard, Kt. of the Bath, a younger son of the Earl of Arundel and a descendant of the last Duke of Buckingham, being made Bn. and Visc. Stafford. He was attainted in 1678 and beheaded in 1680, but in 1688 his widow was made a Countess for life, and her son created an Earl, this last title continuing till 1762. The title of Stafford was now dormant for over 60 years, but a resolution of the House of Lords in 1824 reversed the attainder of 1678 and awarded the title of 8th Bn. to Sir Geo. W. Stafford-Jerningham, 7th Bt., as heir general of the Howard line. The terms of remainder as given by Nicolas are, "to the heirs male of their bodies, failing which to the heirs [female] of their bodies." The present Baron, succeeding, through his mother, has changed the family name from "Stafford-Jerningham" to "Fitzherbert-Stafford," while the Baronetcy, which cannot be inherited through a female, has passed to a distant cousin—see under "Jerningham." The numbering is reckoned from 1547, as the extinction in 1640 was immediately followed by recommencement. It may be added that in 1461 a Humphry Stafford was created a Baron, but beheaded eight years afterwards.

CREATIONS. Eng.: E. of Suffolk, 1603; Visc. Andover and Bn. Howard of Charlton, 1622; E. of Berkshire, 1626.—Lord Thos. Howard, son of the attainted 4th Duke of Norfolk (beheaded 1572), was created Earl of Suffolk: he had been a distinguished naval officer under Elizabeth and was specially vigilant in discovering the Gunpowder Plot; later on he was appointed Chancellor of Cambridge University and Lord High Treasurer of England. Previously to the Earldom he had received the Barony of Howard de Walden, but that Barony fell into abeyance on the death of the 3rd Earl and ultimately was revived in a different branch of the family. The 1st Earl's 2nd son was created Visc. Andover and afterwards Earl of Berkshire. The 4th Earl of the latter title succeeded as 11th Earl of Suffolk (the tenures of title in this line having averaged much shorter than those of the other owing to a brother or uncle having succeeded in four instances). Former Earldoms of Suffolk had existed, and one of them in 1448 rose to be a Dukedom: the 3rd Duke was beheaded in 1513 and a 4th created a year after: the 7th and last was beheaded in 1554. There had also been one Earl of Berkshire previous to the above creation, but this lasted only 1620–3.

CREATIONS. Scot.: E. of Sutherland, about 1230, Eng.: A Bt. 1620; Bn. Gower, 1703, Gt. Br.: Earl Gower and Visc. Trentham, 1746; Marq. of Stafford, 1786. U.K.: D. of Sutherland, 1833.—The Scottish Earldom is said to have existed in 1057; but William, styled the 1st Earl, was given the title about 1230 for his services in suppressing an insurrection. The 11th Earl was succeeded by his sister. The 12th (rather 13th, if the Countess is reckoned) forfeited his title in 1562 from suspected complicity in the Earl of Huntly's rebellion; but it was restored in 1565, from which date his precedence is reckoned in the Scottish Roll of Peers. He was afterwards poisoned by his uncle's widow, who wanted the title for her son; but his own son escaped by accidental detention from the poisoned meal, and the perpetrator was sentenced to death, but preferred suicide in prison. The Countess who was 21st in line married the 2nd Marq. of Stafford, who long afterwards was created 1st Duke (in 1833). The 1st Bn. Gower was Sir Jno. Leveson-Gower, 5th Bt., who had married a daughter of the 1st Duke of Rutland. His successor was raised to the Earldom, the 2nd Earl to the Marquessate, and the 2nd Marq. to the Dukedom. It was the 2nd Duke who assumed the additional name of Sutherland.

CREATION. Irel.: Bn. Trimlestown, 1462. (The 16th Bn. spelt the title "Trimleston," and that is the form in the Irish Roll, but the present Peer restored the form here given.)—Sir Robt. Barnewall was created 1st Bn. by Edward IV. His successor had to receive a pardon for participation in the plot of Lambert Simnel. The 3rd Bn. was Lord High Chancellor of Ireland. On the death of the 16th Peer in 1879 the title was dormant till 1891, when it was claimed by a remote cousin who died the same year, before his right had been established: this process had consequently to be undertaken by his brother the present Baron. In 1634 there was a dispute as to precedence between the 7th Bn. and the 9th Bn. Dunsany, and it was then decided in favour of the former. In 1893, when the present Peer established his right, the order was reversed; but still later a new Roll was made up with "Trimleston" restored to its former position.

CREATIONS. Irel.: A Bt. 1620; Visc. of Valentia, 1622 (N.S.); Bn. Mountnorris, 1629. U.K.: Bn. Annesley, of Bletchington, 1917.—Sir Fras. Annesley (Kt.), a P.C. and Secretary of State in the Irish Government, was created a Baronet (the second person in Ireland to obtain that title) and afterwards made Bn. Mountnorris. The Viscounty was a reversionary grant to fall to Sir Francis on the death of the then Visc., who was without an heir (Sir Henry Power, cr. Visc. 1622, d. 1642); the Mountnorris Barony was valid at once. The 2nd Visc. was made Earl of Anglesey and Bn. Annesley in the English Peerage, and these titles descended to the 6th Earl, who was also 5th Bn. Altham, a title conferred on the 1st Earl's 2nd son. But on his death in 1761 the English House of Lords refused to admit this 6th Earl's eldest son, raising an objection to his legitimacy, which the Irish Parliament had accepted as good. He thus retained the Irish honours and had that of Earl of Mountnorris added to them—an Earldom that went no further than his only surviving son (1793–1844). The Viscty. and the Mountnorris Barony now passed again to a collateral, the grandfather and predecessor of the present Peer; 'Debrett,' however, regards both of these as unsubstantiated claimants only, stating that they have never had their titles established by the Committee of Privileges.

WARWICK, Earl of, and Earl Brooke. Francis Richard Charles Guy Greville, 5th Earl (Gt. Br.), Terr. Dec., a D.L., late Lord Lieut. of Essex and Pres. of its Terr. Force Assoc., Lord High Steward of Stratford-on-Avon since 1917, a D.L. and Co. Ald. for Warwicksh. (Mayor of Warwick 1915–6, for 5th time), Hon. Col. (late comdg.) Warwicks. Yeom. and Hon. Col. that of Essex, and of 3rd Batt. Essex Regt. (Sp. Res.), a Trustee and Gov. of Rugby School, formerly a M.P. (as Lord Brooke); son of 4th E.: b. Feb. 9, 1853; suc. 1893 (C.); mar. 1881 Frances Evelyn, dau. of the late Col. Hon. Chas. H. Maynard, son of 3rd and last Visc. Maynard. Seats, The Castle, Warwick; Easton Lodge, Dunmow, Essex (let).

Creations. Eng.: Bn. Brooke, 1621. Gt. Br.: Earl Brooke, 1746; E. of Warwick, 1759.—The Rt. Hon. Sir Fulke Greville, a Kt. of the Bath and Chancellor of the Exchequer, was created 1st Bn. Brooke; he was descended on the female side from the brother of Wm. de Beauchamp, 10th Earl of Warwick (died 1298) in the original line. The 2nd Bn. was a General in the Parliamentary Army at Edgehill and in the Siege of Lichfield, during the latter of which he was killed by a musket-ball. The 4th Bn. was one of the Commissioners who invited Charles II. to return. The 8th Bn. was promoted to be Earl Brooke; and later, when a pre-existing Earldom of Warwick had become extinct, that title was added to his previous one. There had been Earls of Warwick from the time of William II., and the extinctions, forfeitures, and beheadings which have followed them, make the title a rival in tragedy with the Norfolk Dukedom. These concomitants, however, have been happily absent from the present line of descent. The 13th Earl of the original line (brother-in-law of the famous "king-maker," who in 1450 was created Earl for life) was promoted to be Duke of Warwick and crowned "King of the Isle of Wight" by Henry VI.'s own hand. These latter honours went no further than himself, and his sister's husband, who received the Earldom by a fresh creation, was slain at Barnet in 1471. Edward IV.'s brother, the Duke of Clarence, was the next recipient of the title, but he was attainted and murdered, his three successors being all beheaded. The second of the three who thus suffered was Margaret, Countess of Salisbury and Warwick; the third, who was previously Visc. L'Isle, was created Duke of Northumberland two years before his execution. His son was restored to the Earldom, but died childless in 1589, when the title remained extinct till 1618. A new series of eight Earls now followed, and upon the lapsing of their line in 1759 that of the present Earl succeeded as stated above. "Earl Brooke," being the older, is the leading title upon the Roll.

Creations. Irel.: Bn. La Poer, 1375 by writ; a Bt. 1665; Visc. Tyrone and Bn. Beresford, 1720; E of Tyrone, 1746; M. of Waterford, 1789. Gt. Br.: Bn. Tyrone, 1786.—'Burke' gives us the precise date of creation of the original Barony, but does not give the name of its first holder, so that it appears doubtful whether he is satisfied of its existence; Bn. le Power, however (a title under attainder from about 1700, and the heir to which is E. de P. de la Poer), he gives us as a descendant of Robt. de Poher, Knight Marshal and Joint Governor of Ireland in 1179. The 6th Bn. was in 1672 created Earl of Tyrone and Visc. Decies, but these titles expired with the 3rd Earl. The daughter of this last, however, who was allowed the Barony of La Poer in fee, married Sir Marcus Beresford, 4th Bt., and to him were accorded the Viscty. of Tyrone and subsequently a renewal of the lapsed Earldom. The 2nd Earl was elevated to the Marquessate and created Bn. Tyrone of Gt. Britain, whilst on the death of his mother he inherited also the Barony of La Poer—the only Irish Peerage besides the Masserene Viscty. which is open to female succession. The 4th Marq. was in holy orders, and the 5th, who had represented Co. Waterford in Parliament, became its Lieutenant, a K.P., and Master of the Buckhounds: the 6th, also a K.P., was accidentally drowned.

Wellesley, 1760. Nethds.: Prince of Waterloo, 1815. Spain: Duque de Ciudad Rodrigo and a Grandee of the 1st Class, 1812. Portugal: Conde do Vimeiro, 1811; Duque da Victoria (commonly spelt Vittoria, but the town is in Spain, where tt is never used), and Marquez de Torres Vedras, 1812.—Of the deeds of the great Duke of Wellington, the "hero of a hundred fights," this book is called upon to chronicle but the slightest summary. He sat in the Irish Parliament in 1790 as Member for Trim, but from 1794 to 1815 his career was all but wholly a military one. His first great battle was that of Assaye (1803) in the Nizam's dominions; and after it came the long series of the Peninsular War—Vimieira, Talavera, Busaco, Fuentes d'Onoro, Ciudad Rodrigo, Badajoz, Salamanca, and Vitoria (these in 1808–13), followed by Orthez and Toulouse in France (1814), and then Quatre Bras and Waterloo. From Jan. 1828 for not quite three years he was Prime Minister. He died in 1852 at the age of 83. All the above honours of U.K. and the Continent were accorded to him personally. His grandfather, the 1st Bn. Mornington (Irish Peerage), was Richd. Colley, who assumed a cousin's surname of Wesley (the celebrated Rev. Jno. Wesley was a relative) and afterwards changed it to Wellesley. The 2nd Bn. obtained the Earldom of Mornington, and his 3rd son was the 1st Duke. The two elder sons were respectively Richard, 2nd Earl, created Marq. Wellesley in Ireland, who was Governor-General of India, but died without succession; and William, 3rd Earl, created Bn. Maryborough—both titles passing to his son and grandson, but that of Maryborough lapsing on the death of this last in 1863, when the Mornington titles and the Wellesley Viscty. went to the 2nd Duke.

Wemyss, 1821.—Sir Jno. Wemyss, 1st Bt. (a title which expired with his son), was created 1st Ld. and Earl: he sided with the Parliament in the Civil War. The 2nd Peer obtained a new patent giving remainder of his Earldom and Lordship to his daughter and her heirs male. The heir of the Earl 5th in line was attainted for taking part in the rebellion of 1745, so that the titles remained dormant from his father's death till his own (1756–87), when, as he left no issue, his brother succeeded as untouched by the attainder. ('Burke,' however, singularly calls the attainted successor "6th Earl de jure," thus making the present Peer the 11th; 'Debrett,' on the other hand, omitting the Ctss. in the numbering, styles him only the 8th.) The latter's grandson, the 9th Earl, inherited also the Earldom of March, first bestowed on a son of the 1st Duke of Queensberry, the Hon. W. Douglas, whose sister had married the 4th Earl of Wemyss. The 7th Earl was likewise the recipient of the U.K. Barony. Surname conventionally Charteris only: this had been assumed in 1771 by the 6th Earl; Douglas appears to have been added by the 7th on his accession to the March Earldom with the landed estate of his great great grandmother Lady Anne Douglas.

CREATION. Eng.: Bn. Wentworth, 1529 by writ.—Sir Thomas Wentworth (Kt.) was granted the title of Bn. Wentworth. The 2nd Bn., the last English Governor of Calais, was made a P.C. and a Kt. Banneret. The 4th Bn. was created Earl of Cleveland, but that title went no further. Two granddaughters followed as holders of that Barony, and in their line of successors we find the further extinct titles of Visc. Wentworth and Bn. Lovelace. The Wentworth Barony itself in 1815 fell into abeyance between the deceased Baron's sister Judith (who by marriage had become Lady Milbanke) and his nephew Lord Scarsdale; but this condition was terminated on the death of Lord Scarsdale in 1856, by the succession of Anna Isabella, daughter of Lady Milbanke and then widow of Lord Byron (whose surname was Noel-Byron). Her only child, the Hon. Augusta Ada Noel-Byron, mar. as his 1st wife 8th Bn. King, crea. 1st E. of Lovelace, and the Wentworth Bny. after being held by their two sons, eventually devolved upon the only child of the 2nd E. as Bnss. 14th in line in 1906, thence passing to the late (15th) Bnss. CREATIONS. Irel. : Bn. of Delvin, perhaps 1389 by writ ; E. of Westmeath, 1621.—The name of Gilbert de Nugent is given as that of the 1st Bn. by tenure. The title then passed by marriage to the FitzJohn family, but came back by the same process to Sir Wm. Nugent. In concert with the Earl of Kildare the 12th Bn. was engaged in hostilities with the native Chiefs, by one of whom, O'Connor, he was treacherously made a prisoner and kept long in confinement. The 14th Bn. was commissioned by the Crown to extirpate the O'Mores, but was sent prisoner to London in 1580 on suspicion of holding treasonable correspondence with the Leinster rebels ; having, however, established his innocence, he returned to Ireland, and Elizabeth ordered him several grants of forfeited land, which the troubles of the country prevented his receiving. His son, the 15th Bn., was raised to the Earldom. The 4th Earl was outlawed for having fought for James II., but the sentence was afterwards remitted. The 6th Earl conformed to the Protestant Church. The 8th was in 1822 created a Marquess, but he left no son and that title lapsed in 1877, whilst the Earldom passed to a cousin, an ancestor of whom had been created Lord Riverston by James II. after abdication—the title consequently being never admitted, though it continued to be used till its holder became 9th Earl. The 10th served on the Continent.

The 2nd Earl (née Grosvenor) resumed the family name of Egerton. The 3rd Peer, having been M.P. for Weymouth and Bath, was before succession created Bn. CREATIONS. Eng.: Bn. St. John of Basing, 1539; E. of Wiltshire, 1550; M. of Winchester, 1551.—Sir Wm. Paulet, K.G., was the recipient of these three creations. He was a confidant of Henry VIII. and held the office of Lord Treasurer of England through the changes of the three succeeding reigns; and on being once asked how he had contrived to stand through them all, he replied, "By being a willow, not an oak." The 3rd Peer was given to literature and writing poetry. The 5th sacrificed all his property through supporting Charles I. in the Civil War, his mansion at Basing being burnt to the ground after a siege. The 6th Marq. was made Duke of Bolton, and that title ran through six in the line. The 3rd Duke (8th Marq.) involved himself with the actress Lavinia Bestwick, and had three sons by her previously to the death of his 1st wife. As he left no other issue, though he eventually married the actress, his titles went to his brother: but on the death of the 6th Duke, who was an Admiral of the White, the Dukedom expired and the Marquessate passed to a descendant of the 5th holder of that title. The 13th Marq. in his closing years assumed the additional name of Burroughs, but this appears to have been for himself alone. His grandson the 15th Peer was a Major in the Coldstream Guards and was killed at Magersfontein in December 1899.

The eldest son succeeded his father in the Baronetcy, but he predeceased his mother, so that his next brother became her successor in the Peerage. Sir Heneage Finch (Kt.), son of the 3rd brother, having been Attorney-General and Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, was separately created a Bt. and raised to the Peerage as Bn. Finch, and subsequently appointed Lord Chancellor with the title of Earl of Nottingham. His son, the 2nd Earl, succeeded as 7th Earl of Winchilsea. Previously hereto the 3rd Earl of Winchilsea (distinguished by having 27 children), who was high in favour with the 2nd Charles and James (prevailing upon the latter to return to London on his first attempted flight), was made Bn. INDEX TO THE SEATS AND RESIDENCES CITED IN THE DIRECTORY OF TITLED PERSONS.

 The design of this Index, the comprehensiveness of which we have been compelled somewhat to limit, is to furnish a ready means of reference to the occupant of every address in the Directory within the British Isles, provided it bears a distinctive name, is non-official in character, and held by a person not lower in rank than a Knight or the son or daughter of a Baron. The only exceptions are those of unsubstantiated claimants, or of ladies whose former claims to titles have been forfeited by re-marriage. Many residences will doubtless be merely villas or even houses in a terrace distinguished by some special name; but no line of exclusion can possibly be drawn, nor is it called for in a list which is not restricted to "seats." On the other hand there are almost certainly a large number of villages and hamlets cited in the form of residences; but this also is unavoidable (except by the putting of questions which would often be thought offensive) in view of the large number of actual seats which are designated by apparently local names without the addition of the word "House," "Hall," or "Park." Yet again, there are a large number of residences which are appended to more than one name in the DIRECTORY; and in these cases, if relationship cannot be traced, it is presumable that one name represents the occupant and the other the owner. We have done our best to make the distinction clear, or at any rate to supply the name of the occupant.

The greatest pains have been taken to supply to every address the far too frequently omitted post-town, a long dash being substituted when the Editor's efforts for its discovery have been without avail. More complete addresses will very often be found under the names in the Directory, but they are never consciously so abridged as to entail extra labour on the Post Office. It should be noted in the case of such abridgments as "Glos.," "Worc.," "Leic.," that they invariably denote the county and not the county town—no town whatever being contracted if it can possibly be confused with the county. "Durham" without "Co." means the city of Durham, and similarly in numerous Irish examples.

At the cost of much additional space, every address is now given in the style prescribed under our "Modes of Addressing Persons of Title;" many contractions, however, will naturally be expanded in copying. The name and style of the wife is appended in those numerous instances in which the husband does not hold a title which would on his own account have given him a place in this work.

The rule observed in alphabetising has been to treat the entire name of the residence as one word (the parenthesised "The," coming out of its true position, can only be ignored): this course is unavoidable on account of the vast number of instances in which a compound designation is spelt by some in a single word and by others in two.

HOSPITALS AND CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

THE purest of pleasures and the greatest of gratifications elude those who seek to enjoy them by gaining, and are only to be found in giving. If he who gives quickly gives twice, he gives more than twice who gives with discretion, and to all who would give discreetly it is of importance to possess abbreviated particulars of the claims, needs and special purposes of existing Charities, Hospitals and Benevolent Institutions. The objects of these many organisations differ, but in principle they are identical, however they may vary in their systems and methods, and in the range and character of their administration. For instance, of the Institutions whose direct concern is with Health—the most valuable asset alike of the individual and the nation—the exclusive endeavour of some is to exemplify the soundness of the argument that "prevention is better than cure"; while others, curing where cure is possible, extend their resources to the alleviation of suffering in incurable cases, thus shouldering a far heavier burden. A simple list of the names of the Principal Charities would in itself show how comprehensive is the scope of their beneficent work.

Of the organisations devoted to the help, relief and welfare of the Young, one Orphanage, undenominational and unendowed, receives children from the tender age of three months; another combines with the responsibilities of an Orphanage the activities of a Working School; another Orphan School takes, from all parts of the British Empire, children of the necessitous middle class, maintaining, clothing and feeding them; Deaf and Dumb little ones are similarly cared and provided for; for children of parents convicted of crime, and children in danger of evil associations, Village Homes are conducted on the group system, under foster-mothers. There are Orphan Homes from which none is excluded by any consideration of class or creed—to which no destitute child is ever refused admission. The purpose of one Boys' Home is to train necessitous lads for the Army, Navy and Mercantile Marine, and for various civilian occupations at Home and in the British Dominions. For the preparation for sea of boys of good character a Training Ship is kept in commission on which destitute candidates are received free, £18 a year being paid for those whose friends can afford it. Much child-welfare work is carried out by Hospitals—in East London, in South London, and in West London, a fourth receiving from anywhere little patients suffering from any form of Hip Disease, while for the protection of children from cruel usage the officers and agents of a Society are active all over the Kingdom.

All classes of Women and Girls are dealt with by an Association of democratic constitution for mutual help, sympathy and prayer. Another class is reached by a Society for the reclamation of young fallen women, an object also aimed at by a Mission that provides Maternity Rescue Homes. Besides General Hospitals for Women, some Lying-in Hospitals receive married women as well as single women with their first child. At a Hospital for Invalid Gentlewomen, medical and surgical treatment is gratuitous, moderate charges being made for board and lodging.

The General Hospitals are practically all-comprehensive in their scope. They constitute the training schools for the future healers of humanity, and their claim upon the public for support is of the strongest. They offer a varied selection to any one willing to endow a Cot at a cost of £500 or a Bed for £1,000—the finest of all memorials. Supplementing the work of the Hospitals, Convalescent Homes and Institutions lighten the lot of the Incurable, and one Institution exists for the noble purpose of opening its doors to the dying.

Separate Hospitals treat cases of Consumption and Chest Diseases, Fever, Skin Diseases, Cancer, Paralysis and Epilepsy, Diseases and Complaints of the Eye, Ear and Throat, Venereal Diseases (combined with reclamation work), etc. Facilities furnished by a Hospital Society for wounded sick and injured Seamen are available for sailors of all nationalities. Akin to that of the Hospitals is the work of Societies that supply the needy with trusses and other surgical aids and necessities.

Among Charitable Agencies is one for granting pensions to the Indigent Blind; the Deaf and Dumb, of whom there are 4,000 in London alone, are specially cared for to the utmost extent of its funds by an Association devoted to those so afflicted; another Society undertakes the industrial training of blind and crippled girls; and the benevolence of yet another is exercised for the relief of distressed members (of sixty years and over) of the upper and middle classes. Aged Farmers and their dependents, necessitous Clergymen and their widows and children, Lay Church Workers, men and women, are the separate care of several Corporations, one of which gives immediate assistance to Clergymen, their widows and orphan daughters, in all parts of the Empire. Complementing other relief, an Association makes extra grants to London local committees in poor parishes through the local clergy and district visitors. Shipwrecked Sailors rescued by one Institution are looked after by another, and the special wants of Fishermen are also attended to.

Animals generally, and animals of particular species, are under the care of special Associations, and Homes exist for particular animals, while the sole object of some Societies is to wage war against Vivisection.

Missions are active for the spiritual and temporal good of both British and Foreign Mariners, the neglected denizens of slumland, and other classes. There are several "Armies" and Associations whose services are so extensive that each one might aptly be described as a "Spiritual Army Service Corps." The religious needs of our fellow-countrymen abroad are the concern of specialised effort.

The foregoing is an indication of the channels into which the living streams of charity and benevolence may be directed. But they do not arise from any inexhaustible fountain-head, and their flow can only be continued as long as tributary waters feed them. Recent seasons have been exceptionally dry. In every direction Hospitals and other Charities that have weathered the storm and stress of all other emergencies are now in shoal water and in peril of going aground. Some have already touched bottom and can only be refloated by endeavour at once strenuous and immediate. That endeavour must be made extraneously, for the powerlessness of those on board is revealed by their appeal: "Save us or we perish."

War-created conditions have decreased receipts and greatly increased expenditure, upsetting the estimates and calculations of former years. Financial stability can only be arrived at by a good measure of Annual Subscriptions. Existing Subscribers are urged to make bequests, wherever possible, to prevent any Institution suffering from the stoppage of their support. The established Charities and Hospitals of Great Britain plead for special help in this time of their special need. Their history is a vindication of the voluntary principle on which they are founded and administered, the abandonment of which would be a national reproach—only avertible, it is to be feared, by individual response to the general appeal now made.

This Society exists for the purpose of supplying the means of Grace to our fellow countrymen abroad, especially in those parts of the Empire where they are in danger of drifting into irreligion for lack of the Gospel.

Over Forty Colonial Dioceses receive aid from the Society, including those in Canada, Australasia, British East Africa, South Africa, the West Indies, and India. Many Colonial Bishops are applying for far more aid than the Society's funds can meet.

Owing to the enormous inrush of settlers to the Colonies, the Society started in 1906 a SPECIAL N.W. CANADA FUND, and in 1912 an AUSTRALIAN FUND.
243 Clergy and Lay Evangelists have been sent out, over 120 Prairie Churches built, and more than £196,000 has been expended in the West. £10,000 per annum is required to maintain the Agents in Canada.

Assistance is also given to ministrations among British artizans, sailors and others in Continental cities, and services (self-supporting) are organized for visitors at health resorts.

During the War the Society's Chaplains rendered devoted service to thousands of British residents, refugees, and sick and wounded soldiers.
